

Internet Safety at Hugh Baird College

Hugh Baird College take every appropriate precaution to ensure that both Students and Staff receive the optimum level of internet security, whilst accessing the Internet via the College network.

The College employs various tools and software to ensure services are used appropriately and safely. This includes a BECTA compliant content filter that ensures internet access made whilst using College computers meets government safety guidelines.

Regards

John Billington
Network Manager